NYACCE President's Scholarship Application

Description of the Award: A $500.00 scholarship is available annually to one recipient to support higher education.

Eligibility: The candidate must be a member, or an immediate family member*, of a NYACCE member in good standing. *Immediate family member may be the son, daughter, stepson, stepdaughter, spouse, parent, brother or sister of the NYACCE member in good standing (dues must be current)

Criteria: The scholarship is competitive, reviewed by committee and awarded to one person annually. It is based on quality of candidate response, in writing, to a selected essay topic. The essay must be post-marked and returned in a timely manner and must address the stated topic. All candidates must sign a release allowing NYACCE to reprint their essay in LINKS, the NYACCE newsletter.

Deadline: Completed applications must be received by April 1, 2011.
The Awards Committee will determine winner of the award.

Applicants: Please complete all parts of this application form and submit to John Hogan, c/o Adult Learning Center 141 Western Avenue, Albany, NY 12203

Your application must include the following:

- Two letters of support from people who know you well and can attest to your character and work attitude. These individuals should tell why they feel you are deserving of this award.

- A short essay (150-500 words) written by you on the topic below:

"People who soar are those who refuse to sit back, sigh and wish things would change. They neither complain of their lot nor passively dream of some distant ship coming in. Rather, they visualize in their minds that they are not quitters; they will not allow life's circumstances to push them down and hold them under."--Charles Swindoll

- Completion of the material on the next page.
