

RAISING THE BAR...

PERFORMANCE COUNTS

Call for Presenters

59th Annual NYACCE Conference
The Marriott Hotel, Albany, NY
May 2-4, 2010

Dear Colleagues:

We invite you to submit a presentation proposal for the 59th Annual NYACCE Conference to be held May 2 – 4, at the Marriott Hotel in Albany. Our conference theme is “NYACCE 2010: Raising the Bar ...Performance Counts”.

Our conference theme this year recognizes the challenges programs face in meeting increased performance targets and the importance of program outcomes. As the benchmarks for student accomplishments increase, we realize that so must the quality of the programming provided. As funding becomes increasingly competitive and program performance is a determining factor, performance indeed counts. Our vision is that conference attendees will attend workshops and presentations that will assist them in: meeting increased performance standards; addressing the multiple needs of a very diverse student and community population; improving the capacity and quality of programming; and, promoting greater coordination and partnerships within their communities and the state at large.

The NYACCE Annual Conference offers a chance for practitioners to come together for professional development and networking opportunities. If you have an idea that can help others through teaching and learning strategies, marketing ideas, forming new collaborations, or other best practices, we encourage you to submit a proposal. We also invite you to distribute this Call for Presenters with others that might have valuable information to share.

We look forward to seeing you at the 59th Annual NYACCE Conference.

Sincerely,

Lisa McKeel
