Adult Educators Meet in All Day Conference
8: 00 am to 4:00 pm

On Saturday, May 5th, 2007, adult educators from all over the tri-state area will meet at the Fashion Industries High School at 225 West 24th Street in Manhattan for the 28th annual Adult Basic Education Conference. The conference will have important panel discussions on New York City's Library Systems Resources and Health Resources for Immigrant Communities in New York City. There will be a wide variety of workshops exploring best practices in GED /Pre-GED/BE math, reading and writing, ESL instruction, and Family Literacy initiatives throughout the New York City literacy community. The conference will culminate with an interactive plenary session. Teachers are encouraged to invite their students interested in student leadership, community building, and ESL/ABE transition-to-college to take part in the conference.

Advanced Registration is $15. On-site Registration is $20. Special Student rate is $2 at all times. If you wish to pre- register for the conference, please contact the undersigned:
